News

What we were doing when we weren't doing things we should have been doing...

We're polishing up Zymph, and readying it for its release – which means it's time to focus our energies on DMS Secretary 5! We need beta-testers, so if you would like to help us improve and tweak DM Secretary before it is released to the public, sign up now! Just shoot us an email, IM, or message through one of our online social groups...

And we have some good news: we are back on the forum! As some of you may know, we were mysteriously banned from our own forum a mere few weeks after creating it. But (just as mysteriously) we're now allowed back on, which means we can start doing a lot of the things we wanted to do with it from the beginning! For example, we made a few posts, and imported 199 games into our games section! The games are free to play, and keeps track of high scores and such – so try some out! Also, if you have not registered on our forum yet, please do so. We would love to shoot the breeze with you guys, just to see what interesting information we can pick from your minds...
