The things we did when we weren't doing the things we do...

DM SECRETARY 5

After careful review and research of the Dungeons & Dragons 4th Edition "Gaming System License" (or GSL), we have decided to make DM Secretary without pursuing an official Wizards of the Coast License.

What does this mean?

It means we will make the program the way we want to make it, without worrying about being "compatible" with their license. (Since it apparently doesn't allow software anyway). Since we make the product for free, we shouldn't have any problems.

This does, however, open up a new door for us - we can make DM Secretary compatible with other game systems - like White Wolfs. More details on this later...

Any thoughts, questions, comments?

Updated RPG Suite to 1.1! All programs contained within the collecton have been updated to their current versions!

Added Graph Paper, Graph Paper BG, Hex Graph Paper, and Hex Graph Paper BIG to Tidbits section.

On The Horizon...

Straight from the fingers of the OE staff

A lot more Tidbts - and we are preparing to post the source code for DM Secretary 4.1.15, and from now on, we will be posting the source code for ALL versions of the program made afterwards. Open source, here we come!
